Three car loads of cattle were placed under quarantine at the Southern's feeding bains at Spencer yesterday. Dr. J. M. Turner, the Uniged States Voterlandrian inspector, who is stationed at this fected with tucks and promptly places the entire shipment under quarantine. The cattle were being shipped from East Ten-nessee to Baltimore and it is learned that the shipper will lose about $500 on account of the quarantine regulations being en-building for the Y. M. C. A. at Spencer. The Southern Rallway has offered a site for the same and the committee of management is making arrangements to accept the offer. It is proposed that the building will cost about $10,000, the same 10 has well equipped with all medern compeniences and comforts for railroad men. The revival which has been in progress at the Spencer Baptist Church for about ten days, closed Tuesday night. Rev. Dr. R. D. Haymore, who assisted the pastor, left yesterday for Asheville, where he will assist Rev. W. M. Vines, of the First Baptist Church, of that place, in a series of meetings.

The Salisbury Anti-Saloon League has made a thorough cant less of the city with reference to the prohibition election to be held November 12th. It is found that the known dry voters are considerably in the majority over the known wet and doubtful voters combined. The temperance workers feel practically certain of carrying the election.

A VICTORY FOR THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GOLDSBORO, N. C., Oct. 8.—The pronibition election to-day resulted in a great victory for the Anti-Salgon League, which has wased an incessant warfare against the whickey traffic for the past everal months. At no time since the election was ordered about flye weeks ago has there been any doubt as to the result.

The majority for prohibition is 249.

WANDERED TWO DAYS IN A SMALL AREA

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) bald McKenny, about twenty-five years of age, had been missing from home two of age, had been missing from home two days and nights when he was found by a neighbor near the Norfol kand Western Railroad tracks in a demented condition, having wandered around within a half mile of home all the while, utterly unable to find his way home, notwithstanding a large force of men were at work within full view all the while. He is subject to vertigo, and was having chills, and whenever he has fever becomes bewildered and utterly loses his geason.

TO ASK VERDICT SECOND DEGREE

Pistols of Skinner and Haywood Placed in Evidence.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 8.—The introduction of evidence in the trial of Ernest Haywood was concluded this afternoon and argument by counsel begins to-morrow. Solicitor Daniel announced, in reply to Judge Peebles' question that the State would ask for a verdict of murder in the second degree. Judge Peebles stated that defense would have the first and last speech, so James H. Pou will open and speech, so James H. Pou will open and M .Argo conclude.

MEETING POSTPONED

Deep Run Hunt Club to Rearganize October 20th.

October 20th.

A meeting of the Deep Run Hunt Club was called for last evening at the Vrestmoreland Club, but on account of the small number in attendance, not enough to constitute a quorum, it was decided to wait until later.

Leading members of the organization, who are unfailing devotees of sport, desire very earnestly to reorganize the club and establish it on a firmer basis than ever before. The next meeting was fixed for Tuesday evening, October 20th, at the Westmoreland. The effort will be made to bring out every member of the club.

Every Man Will Want Two This Morning.

The weather man promises clear and cool weather to-day. He said that early this morning every man on the street would likely have his hands in his pockets, and he would wish them in his overcoat pockets. He went on to say, however, that by the middle of the day the moderate fall weather.

The prognosticator declares that he sees nothing uhead just now but cool, clear weather, such as one would expect in the middle fall.

was the entry of Masters Ned Chapman and Earl Higginbotham and his little sister, Ruth Higginbotham, on their beautiful little ponies, but there seemed to be no prize for the little ones.

LADY RIDERS.

In the married ladles' contest for the best rider the contest was between Mrs. Lenda Hall, Mrs. Jennie Barnes, Mrs. Stella Gillespie and Mrs. Lacy Lynes, Mrs. Repass and Mrs. Dr. Painter, the prize being won by Mrs. Gillespie.

Among the young lady riders were Misses Dolly May, Maggle May, Ollie Miller, of Gladespring; Josie Shawver, Mary Brown, Willie Browning, of Pocahontas; Minnie Hoge, Stella Stras, of Roanoke, and Miss Ghent, of Ballimore, the prize being won by Miss Mary Brown.

The financial success of the fair was one of the most pleasing features to the association.

PORTSMOUTH PRIMARY

Colonel Stewart Defeats Kelly and Maupin for the House, nominee for the House of Dolgates from the city of Portsmouth, developed not a single exciting phase.

The present legislative campaign has been one of the quietest in the history of the city, being in very startling contrast to the strenuous times enjoyed by the Norfolk politicians.

Owing to the fact that the City Committee reversed its decision with regard to the viva voce system of voting, the primary to-day differed in no essential feature from the primaries of years past. It resembled, in fact, a general ejection more than anything else. Three candidates were voted for. They are Colonel William H. Stewart, Mr. James Casey, and Mr. E. W. Maupin. Hon. C. T. Bland declined to run again.

The primary resulted in Colonel Wm. H. Stewart receiving the General Assembly nomination over Messrs. Maupin and Casey by a majority of 171. Total vote in city 579.

be on the stand all of to-morrow. The defense has still more witnesses. Thirteen of their witnesses were heard to-day. James Davis, the first witness for the defense to-day, said he was riding on a train with the defendant from Joanston to Columbia. The witness said he didn't hear Mr. Tillman make any threats against Gonzales.

SNUFF HIS LIGHT.

Colonel E. L. Bleaz, who said he has been a member of the Legislature and that he was with the defendant throughout the campaign of 1062, testified he was in the defendant's room in a hotel in Columbia on the night of the 20th or 21st of august, 1962, when Dr. Adams was there, and was reading some of the editorials from the State that he might be in a position to reply to them in his speech. Witness said Dr. Adams advised Mr. Tillman "to go down to the State office and fight Gonzales" and that the defendant said he "was Lieutenant-Governor and could not afford to have a difficulty, that he would be impeached." The witness added, "somebody about that time made a remark about some thing which Gonzales had said about what he would do to Colonel Tillman. Colonel Tillman said: "You needn't be uneasy about that-you boys needn't be uneasy about that. If he attacks me, I will snuff his light out with this."

Witnesses, jestified that when a part of an-ediforial refering to mock theatricals was read, Mr. Tillman said: "If he attempts to carry out one of his threats, I will make it the — tragedy that has ever happened in South Carolina."

The witness said that the pistol in Mr. Tillman's room at the hotel in Columbia was there "Because we expected trouble

The witness said that the pistol in Mr. Tillman's room at the hotel in Columbia was there "Because we expected trouble at the opera house," adding, "We expected Colonel Tillman, to be attacked by Mr. Gonzales."

J. A. White, of Edgefield, appointed by Mr. Tillman as a depressor in the State.

J. A. White, of Edgsfield, appointed by Mr. Tillman, as a doorkeeper in the State Senate at the last session of the Legislature, said that while he was sitting in the lobby of the Senate a man, whom he was told was N. Gr Gonzales came up to him and asked where Mr. Tillman was, and among other things said he had made Mr. Tillman show the white feather twice and would do it again. The witness reported this to the Lieutenant-Governor. WHITE FEATHERS.

Richard H. Holsonback, also of Edgefield, told of the conversation which he said: Mr. Gonzales had with Mr. White relative to making Mr. Tillman show the

The witness said he told Mr. Tillman that night what had been said.
Witness said he was just behind Senator Talbird, Lieutenant-Governor Tilman and Benator Brown as they approached the transfer station in Columbia on the way down from the State House on January 15th. He said as he crossed Gervas Street, he saw Mr. Gonzales coming in the opposite direction on the outside of the Street, he saw Mr. Gonzales coming in the opposite direction on the outside of the pavement. He said Mr. Gonzales crossed obliquely to the left. He could have passed on the outside, he said, instead of cutting diagonally across the inside. Witness said he heard Mr. Tillman say: "If got your message." He said that Mr. Gonzales thereupon put his hand down deep in his pocket and added that he thought Mr. Gonzales was going to he thought Mr. Gonzales was going to he thought Mr. Gonzales was going to shoot Mr. Tillman. He heard the shot but said he didn't see where Mr. Tillman drew the pistol from. He said Lieutenant-Governor Tillman was in the middle.

TILLMAN ON STAND.

TILLMAN ON STAND.

J. H. Tillman, when he took the stand, was asked by Mr. Crow to explain this and that incident, to which reference has been made during the trial. After giving his explanation of the South Carolina Club incident, he was asked with regard to messages he may have sent to Mr. Gonzales, saying that he had sent a verbal message to him by Georgo S Logare, asking him (Gonzales) to meet him in Georgia. He said Mr. Gonzales wanted the invitation put in writing, but he was afraid it was a trap. He said also that he did not want to violate any of the duelling laws of his State. Answering further questions, the witness said that when he was correspondent in Washington for Southern papers, Mr. Gonzales was applicant for the position of consul-general at Shanghal, and that he wrote his papers that Mr. Gonzales would not be appointed and said he had some hot words with him ha hotel lobby in Washington. As to the cigar incident, he said that on the next day he went up to the hotel cigar stand and bought some cigars, and turning around offered them to those standing there. He noticed Mr. Gonzales then, he said, and saw he had made a mistake.

MILITARY CAREER.

Asked as to Mr. Gonzales then, he said, and smillitary career, he said.

"It has always been hitter towards me since I was twenty-one years of ago." The question of his millitary career and "It has always been bitter towards me since I was twenty-one years of ago." The question of his military career and the comments of The State was then taken up, Mr. Tilman stating, among other things, Mr. Gonzales was to have him court-martialed because of an incident which he related.

Relative to organization of a company of Indian scouts, which has been referred to, he wanted to organize such a company to take to the Philippines, but that President McKinley and the army officers in Washington opposed it.

zales in his campaign for Governor, the defendant replied:

"I think those editorials are fair samples of it."

He denied that he had ever been a traiter to his uncle, and said he had not intentionally been discourteous to the Senate. He was asked what had been the attitude of Mr. Gonzales toward him prior to 1902, to which he replied:

"I think the paper has been pretty well devoted to me since 1890," and in answer to a further question, said the editorials in The State had been extremely abusive of him.
